PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
OF SOUTH CAROLINA

MOTION TO WITHDRAW COMPLAINT

Docket No. 2010-308-E

VALORIE HODGE, (hereinafter “Complainant”), by and through her undersigned attorney of record, moves the Public Service Commission of South Carolina, (hereinafter “Commission”), to dismiss the complaint filed by South Carolina Legal Services, (hereinafter “SCLS”) on her behalf in the above-referenced action. This motion is based on the following:

1. SCLS began representing Complainant on or about August 26, 2010 regarding the pending disconnection of her utilities by Defendant.
2. On August 27, 2010, SCLS assisted Complainant in filing a complaint with the Office of Regulatory Staff (“ORS”) regarding the pending disconnection.
3. On August 27, 2010, Defendant disconnected the electric service at Complainant’s residence.
4. On September 2, 2010, SCLS filed a complaint with the Commission seeking relief under S.C Code of Regulations, Chapter 103 (2010).
5. Since September 2, 2010, Complainant has failed to cooperate with SCLS by failing to keep appointments, misrepresenting facts and providing misleading information, in violation of the retainer agreement between Complainant and SCLS.

6. Thus SCLS has good cause to stop representing Complainant in this matter and withdraw the complaint filed by SCLS to the Commission on her behalf.

IT IS SO MOVED.
